Beautiful 7 bedroom Villa in Javea, Costa Blanca. This cool, elegant, and distinctly expressive villa, presents itself as if it were responsible to the Father of the Gods for newly interpreting classical Greek architecture today with impressive magnitude and white force. Absolutely new and still partially unfinished, the extraordinary villa appears on a raised, completely level plot, with an impressive, expansive view of the Montgo Mountain. The rooms throughout the villa follow the same strikingly modern style, open-plan, interconnecting with accessible, floor to ceiling window facades and bright, refined, and textured floor coverings. Superior, original and sophisticated fittings and furnishings and numerous bedrooms, as well as an appealing spa, play, and sports area with a quaint indoor pool, also make the property a first-class rental and investment proposition and, therefore, not only a dream destination for one's own holidays.
