Solpark is a neighborhood where it is good to stay: all amenities are in the immediate vicinity and yet there is a Mediterranean tranquility here. The Villa is suitable for a couple who would like to sit and enjoy a colorful garden. If suddenly the whole family comes, there is enough space to enjoy all together, without worrying about the accommodation. An authentic guest house, with all facilities, suitable for a romantic get-together provides the right atmosphere and enjoys the same views. An apartment with its own bathroom is for those who do not need a kitchen. The covered outdoor kitchen with barbecue and suitable for making paellas invites everyone to join the tables. For tall tales, an intimate wine cellar is the place to hear what the other has to say. The pool is the place where everyone can cool off and swim. In short, all possibilities are available to be able to stay in summer and winter.
