This sunny two-bedroom villa is on one level, the well-kept villa also has a beautiful terrace from which you can see the sea. The living room and the open kitchen are located directly at the entrance and there is also a master bedroom with bathroom en suite, as well as another bedroom and bathroom. Marble heating radiators in all rooms. The house has an undeveloped underbuild but there is the possibility of expanding it to a guest apartment. The pool was recently completely redone. There is parking and the garden has palms and shaded places where to chill-out. Fantastic south facing villa within a quiet neighborhood.
