This four-storey apartment-complex consists of a commercial ground floor and one apartment per floor and was built in 2009. All floors are accessible by elevator or stairway. On the top floor there is a roof terrace. The whole building has recently had a major makeover. The entrance of the apartment through a security door leads to a long hallway with on the left the living area and the bedrooms on the right side. There is a bright open living room, dining room and kitchen with all the modern comfort. A big double glazed, sound resistant two sided aluminum sliding door gives access to a small terrace. There are three bedrooms, two modern bathrooms and a separate laundry area adjacent to a cozy patio. All rooms have airco units hot/cold. All windows are double glazed, sound resistant and have blinds..
