This pretty finca property is a true gem in a blissful, unspoiled location. For size, character, and location it is quite simply the ideal vision for any finca lovers. The typically, individual country house architecture with authentic, natural stone walls, imposing wooden beams, and hand-cut clay tiles, impressively conveys the traditional finca-character, as well as contemporary comfort and understated elegance due to floor-deep, modern windows, an original kitchen, and a romantically refined gallery, is surrounded by almost 12.000sq m, with a dreamlike view of the expansive, picturesque plains, idyllic vineyards, and striking mountain ranges in the background. An imposing, yet unpretentious fireplace and concealed floor heating, a quite sparse appearance pool area with a substantial barbecue installation, and an ample, exterior kitchen with a covered dining area also form part of the property. A double garage by the house, with a paved entrance area and a level, gravel-covered exterior zone, bordered by a superbly manageable natural stone wall and decorative cypress trees demonstrate further the low-maintenance exterior areas. Fittings: automatic irrigation system, exterior shower, barbecue, 2 deposits, solar, alarm system, office, gallery, sauna, floor heating with oil, dressing room, A/C bedrooms. The sun orientation is to the south, the garden is easy to maintain and there is a double garage.
